

The FCC should do NOTHING to lesson the protections afforded us under the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. The intrusions by marketers calling at inoportune times have been reduced to near zero under the Indiana law.